Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. ~James 3: 13, NRSV

Do you have a favorite superhero? As your mind flashes back, let me clarify my question. Who is your #1 superhero of the Christian faith? I'm not referring to a biblical character. You probably have one of those already. Pick someone you know—or knew—personally that you look up to who models Jesus in word and deed.

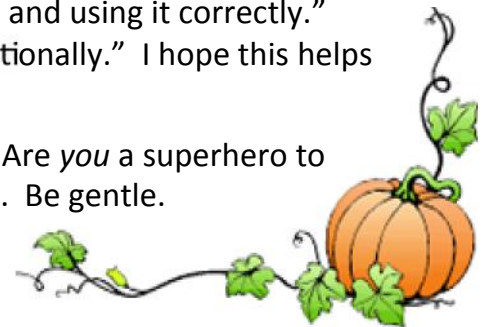

While I do have many superheroes, let me share about Art Murfin. He was the staff pastor at the first mission field where I served. At the time, I had been a Christian less than two years. Much of my early discipleship came during the initial month of my arrival after which he completed his term and returned to the States. Almost every Sunday after worship, I had tears in my eyes because Pastor Art's preaching and teaching reached deep down to my core.

Flash-forward four years. I am at mission headquarters here in the U.S. for several days of training. And who is one of the key leaders? Pastor Art Murfin. During a break from one of the sessions, I took him aside and told him the impact he had—and still has—on me from just that one month under his ministry.

James uses the word wisdom which is translated as "taking knowledge and using it correctly." And understanding is defined as "using intelligence carefully and intentionally." I hope this helps provide some clarity to these words of James.

Now, have you picked that superhero yet? Let's take it the next step. Are you a superhero to someone else? I bet you are and you may not even realize it. Be good. Be gentle. Be (godly) wise. Live intentionally for Jesus!

See You In Church, Pastor Glenn

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ready to pack Operation Christmas Child shoeboxes? This year a covid-safe online system has been developed by Samaritan's Purse. We now have a Tabernacle online Christmas Child Giving page showing our running total of shoeboxes that our church packs! Follow the link on our church website or the Tabernacle UMC facebook page to start packing a virtual shoebox. You can choose what items go in your shoebox and pay online by credit, debit or paypal. It's quick, safe and convenient! Help us exceed our goal of 20 boxes by November 7th.

Adult Sunday School Class Resumes on October 11th he after the 9:15 am worship service in the gym. All are invited to stay for a Bible lesson with Joe Williams. There is plenty of room to spread out and enjoy growing deeper together in God's Word.

Listen to the service on your phone! If you receive The Torch by mail and are unable to access the internet, you may call-in to the 11am service and listen via your phone!

Call this number: (929) 205-6099 give the The Meeting ID: 981 176 2526 and the Password: 779813.
