January 22, 2021 ~ Issue No. 44

“I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”
- John 14: 6

I would like to say that this is an easy letter/devotional to write. The words of Jesus to the Apostle Thomas seem pretty clear, don't they? The key issue is that in 2021 “exclusion” is a dirty word, borderline profanity. While our culture loves exceptions, it doesn't like exceptionalism. But people's argument isn't with me (or you). It's with Jesus. And I think He can handle Himself pretty well.

There is a common expression/refrain offered by many in our culture – including, sadly, Christian culture: “God loves everybody so everybody is going to Heaven.” There's also the similarly opposite: “God loves everybody so He would never send anybody to Hell.” While that sounds humanly logical it is not divinely factual. In other words, it's a nice thing to believe but that doesn't make it true.

I'm getting the vibe that I am leaning a bit toward the negative side of the issue. But I could not be more positive and encouraging. As we are faced with multiple avenues of faith, Jesus shows The Way. In this world of confusion and doubt Jesus reveals The Truth. Surrounded by the death of virus, violence, and victims, Jesus' Resurrection proves The Life.

Thought for the Day: Don't get jammed up on the Parkway when all lanes are open on the Jesus Way (and it's free because He paid the toll).

Look Up (and Out). Pastor Glenn
