November 19, 2020 ~ Issue No. 35

Let all that I am praise the LORD [the I AM]; with my whole heart, I will praise his holy name.
Let all that I am praise the LORD [the I AM]; may I never forget the good things he does for me.
He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases. He redeems me from death and crowns me with love and tender mercies. ~Psalm 103: 1-4, NLT

In this traditional time of “Thanksgiving,” we know that it is anything but traditional this year. So, I pose this question: If you were to write this letter... this devotional, then what would you say? Would you still be able to “praise the I AM with [your] whole heart”?

While it may be more difficult in 2020 to praise Him with all that we have and all that we are, keep in mind (and I better tread lightly here) King David is probably in a tougher position that we are when he pens the verse above. The nation of Israel is going through a period of suffering, yet the mighty King still finds a reason to praise the great I AM through it all!

Is this something you might have written given the chance? This is where I may diverge a bit. So often, we interpret the Bible literally, or at least more literally than we should. Certainly, the Lord forgives our sins when we ask Him to. But when the phrase “[He] heals all my diseases” is used, it’s not referring to the coronavirus or the common cold. King David is sharing about the problems that arise from sin. This is all the more reason to seek God’s forgiveness and commit to living sin-free from this point on.

You may say, “Oh, Pastor Glenn, I don’t want to hear about this. Don’t you know it’s Thanksgiving?” I say to you, what better way to celebrate than being set free from sin’s penalty and to know that death (from sin disease) has been conquered. Accept the “crown” of love and mercy that Jesus will—has—placed upon your holy head.

Now, THAT’s something... someone... to be thankful about!

Thanksgiving Blessings, Pastor Glenn

A Bit of Clean Humor...

A minister parked his car in a no-parking zone in a large city because he was short of time and couldn't find a space with a meter. So he put a note under the windshield wiper that read: "I have circled the block 100 times. If I don't park here, I'll miss my appointment. FORGIVE US OUR TRESPASSES."

When he returned, he found a citation from a police officer along with this note. "I've circled this block for 10 years. If I don't give you a ticket, I'll lose my job. LEAD US NOT INTO TEMPTATION."
